

Hi everyone,

22nd February 2012

It's time to get inspired again and start planning your entry in Raglan's Art to Wear (wearable arts) Awards Show!

The Raglan Art2Wear Awards is to be held on the weekend of Friday 8th - Saturday 9th June 2012 in the Raglan Town Hall.

The Sections:

Wind Warriors - open

RAINBOW - open

The World of DR SEUSS – childrens (pre-school to end of year 8)

Reduce-Reuse-Recycle (recycled) - open

MYTHS & LEGENDS - open

As you can see by the great section titles there is something for everyone to have a lot of fun with and wonderful prize money for the top three place getters from generous local businesses will mean your hard efforts are well rewarded.

Hopefully this early 'heads up' will give you plenty of time to inspire your students/ self to make this wearable arts parade the best we have ever had.

An entry form is enclosed for you and extras are available online at the www.raglanartscentre.co.nz website, entries close 1st June 2012
